Wedding Officiant Agreement

My commitment to you and your future together:

Because I am invested in the health and sanctity of marriages, I will not officiate a wedding unless the couple has completed a minimum of six hours of premarital preparation, counsel and care, AND they each have read and discussed with me The Meaning of Marriage, by Tim and Kathy Keller (I provide the book at no cost.). The premarital preparation does not have to be completed under my direction. When the sessions are done with another party, I require the contact information, in order to verify that the six hour investment was made. To be clear, I am not judging the readiness for marriage, that is for the couple to decide. If this requirement is not met prior to the wedding date, I will not officiate the ceremony, and you will forfeit your deposit.
